

SIMONE OMORODION

My name is SIMONE OMORODION and I currently in my second year studying International Relation and Politics. I have been involved with the Students' Union since from my first year. I am currently the president of the ITALIAN SOCIETY which my position consists to promote various activities, cultural events and participation of the students. I am also a volunteer for VERVE RADIO which I gave my contribute to develop some Media's fields.

I believe that if you feed people needs and you find out the solution, consequently they will follow you and recognize your efforts because walking alone does not give any does not lead to the goal.

I am applying for this role because I want to make my contribution with innovative ideas that can help you also change his belief in the potential of every individual of this university. I believe to be the most worthy to aspire to this role because of my spontaneity and my charisma.

I want to lead with ideas that give a big impact at the institutional level and communication!!!!

My campaign is mostly focus on an expansion of these sectors.

- Library open 24 hours 24
- VERVE RADIO expansion and upgrading of the section Media and Events
- Interactions between students and universities in the search for possible business.
- To help students who are not confident with technology
- Renovation of the canteen with healthy products. Once a week cooking classes with healthy products, for the physical and intellectual well.
