

LMSU Volunteer Role Description Chair of Student Council

Volunteer Role:	Chair of Student Council

Role overview:

Student Council is the main representative body of the Students' Union and is made up of students who represent different groups from across the University.

The Chair of Student Council is responsible for chairing Student Council meetings ensuring that meetings run to time and stay on topic; that all representatives get a chance to voice their opinion; and that Student Council members are supported and empowered to hold elected officers to account

The Chair of Student Council works closely with the Student Voice Coordinator (Democracy and Representation) and the Deputy Chair of Student Council to compile and circulate papers to Student Council in advance of meetings and to identify and progress action points arising from Student Council meetings.

The Chair of Student Council also provides summary reports to LMSU's Board of Trustees on the decisions and activities of Student Council and chairs the Annual Members Meeting.

Location:	London Metropolitan University: Holloway campus, Aldgate campus and some remote volunteering work
Time commitment:	Approx 10 hours per month, including attendance at all 6 Student Council meetings and LMSU's Annual Members Meeting
Supported by:	Student Voice Coordinator (Democracy and Representation)
Training and support offered:	Essential role specific training Ongoing support and guidance A variety of other training sessions will be offered throughout the year Opportunities to attend a number of social events with other Students' Union volunteers The Student Voice Team will make every effort to make meetings and events accessible, however if there is ever something which needs adjusting (for example a meeting room) they can always be contacted to do this. Materials, such as the Council Handbook, can be provided in a larger font or as a physical copy, if you contact the Student Voice Team.
Useful abilities and previous experience:	No previous training or experience is required, but an interest in the representation of students would be advantageous. You will need to be reliable and organised, as well as a good communicator and listener

Role requirements:

- 1. To attend and chair Student Council meetings, including the collation of agenda items and the circulation of papers for the meeting and receiving apologies; ensuring that meetings run to time and stay on topic; ensuring that all representatives get a chance to voice their opinion; and supporting and empowering members of Student Council to hold elected officers to account
- 2. To work closely with the Deputy Chair of Council and Student Voice Coordinator (Democracy and Representation) to identify and chase action points arising from Student Council
- 3. To attend relevant other meetings relating to the post, to represent and act in the best interests of students and to report pertinent information back to Student Council
- 4. To provide summary of decisions and activities to each meeting of the Board of Trustees
- 5. To chair LMSU's Annual Members Meeting
- 6. To uphold the democratic principles of LMSU and to act in a fair and unbiased way
- 7. To act as an ambassador for LMSU, promoting a positive image in everything that you do
- 8. To engage fully in LMSU democratic processes and to be accountable to the student body
- 9. To be an advocate for LMSU campaigns and engagement opportunities, including LMSU Elections and the LMSU Annual Members Meeting
- 10. To carry out all duties in accordance with LMSU policies designed to protect members of staff, elected representatives, volunteers or students from harassment. It is the responsibility of the postholder not to act in a prejudicial or discriminatory manner towards staff, elected officers, volunteers, students, visitors or members of the public. The postholder should also counteract such practice or behaviour by challenging or reporting it
- 11. To take reasonable care of health and safety of self, other people and resources whilst volunteering and to comply with the SU and University Health and Safety Policies, Codes of Practice and local arrangements

What's in it for you:

The role provides a huge opportunity to improve your confidence and gain a unique experience that will really make your CV stand out. You get as much out of it as you put in!

Some of the skills you can gain include:

Community building
Cultural awareness
Decision-making
Democracy
Flexibility and adaptability
Governance
Independent work

The impact you'll have:	Initiative Interpersonal and communication Leadership skills Networking skills Organisational Problem-solving Public speaking skills Representation Teamwork Time Management As well as offering you a chance to enhance your C.V., you will receive a certificate at the conclusion of your role and your contribution will be formally recognised on your degree transcript By ensuring that all elected representatives are acting in the best interests of students and within the boundaries of LMSU's democratic processes, you will be influencing positive change to the student experience of your peers. You will also be directly contributing to LMSU's: Purpose: The advancement of education for Students at London Metropolitan University for the public benefit Mission: Empowering students to make the most of their time at London Met and transform their lives for the better Vision: A connected community in which all students, from any background, receive the highest quality and transformative experience possible Values: Student Led Open Creative Kind Inclusive Ambitious
DBS requirements:	None
Application and selection process:	Election by peers at the first Student Council meeting of the academic year in November, facilitated by LMSU
Last updated:	July 2021
For more information contact:	Eddie Rowley Student Voice Coordinator (Democracy and Representation)

E.Rowley@londonmet.ac.uk